

TUM-Research Excellence Award in Innovation & Leadership 2012

of the Peter Pribilla Foundation

The bi-annual TUM-Research Excellence Award of the Peter Pribilla Foundation honours significant scholarly contributions that advance our knowledge and understanding in the field of „Innovation & Leadership“.

Significant scholarly contributions may take the form of conceptual, theoretical, methodological or empirical developments. Emerging scholars on the level of postdoctoral researchers as well as early career academics and professors are eligible for the award.

The Award Selection Committee is appointed by its Chair, Professor Ralf Reichwald, and consists of renowned international scholars in the field.

The recipient of the TUM-Research Excellence Award in Innovation & Leadership 2012 of the Peter Pribilla Foundation will

- be recognized at the 12th EURAM Conference, June 6th – 8th 2012 in Rotterdam
- receive prize money of 10,000 EUR and
- have the opportunity to present his/her research in the prominent setting of the TUM - Institute of Advanced Studies.

The Peter Pribilla Foundation devotes special attention to the upcoming generation of scholars and to networks between academics and practitioners. It sponsors activities that will advance understanding of the interplay of innovation and leadership in organizations and markets.

We welcome nominations as well as submissions. They must be sent electronically and should include:

- a copy of the scholarly contribution to be considered for the award,
- a one page summary of the contribution, its intention and impact,
- a publication list and full CV of the early career scholar to be considered for the award that clearly states his/her academic achievements so far.

Nominations as well as submissions have to be received no later than February 29, 2012 by the Chair of the Award Selection Committee:

Prof. Dr. Ralf Reichwald
